

We are NOT in favor of changing the State of Wisconsin Do Not Call List to allow the requests of the banking industry (lobby). Such changes would dilute the current law considerably. It could also result in other organizations, businesses, etc. making similar exemption requests in the future. Sufficient advertising venues are readily available. We must call to mind the primary reason the law was enacted in the first place: to terminate unwanted calls.